

'Mr Pinch had a shrewd notion that Salisbury was a very desperate sort of place; an exceeding wild and dissipated city ... he set forth on a stroll about the streets with a vague and not unpleasant idea that they teemed with all kinds of mystery and bedevilment.'

Martin Chuzzlewit, Charles Dickens

ONE WEEK TO GO!

We are really looking forward to seeing you next week for the inaugural Salisbury Literary Festival, which begins in just seven days. We are delighted to have you on board and hope you'll have a wonderful time with us.

Here is some useful information to help you get the most out of your visit.

TICKETS AND EVENTS

Please remember to bring your tickets with you: if you have purchased tickets online, don't forget you'll need to print them (it's worth checking the 'junk' folder if you don't see the email). If you have any problems please contact us at salisburyliteraryfestival@gmail.com and we will be happy to help.

Please be at your events in good time: we have a packed schedule, so all events will start promptly as advertised.

There are some tickets remaining for some events: do check the festival website to see what is still available. For events that haven't sold out, there will also be tickets for some events on the door.

GETTING TO SALISBURY

Salisbury is a beautiful city, but one which also can get quite busy. If you are coming by car, visit the council website for the best places to park.

If you are travelling by train, Salisbury Station is a short walk from the city centre. It is served by South Western and GRW Services.

VENUES

There are events throughout the city centre which is wonderfully compact. The venue name and address is included on each ticket.

Here's a list of the venues and links to their website details on how to get there:

Salisbury Library

Salisbury Guildhall

Waterstones

Sarum College

Salisbury Playhouse

Salisbury Museum

Salisbury Cathedral

The New Inn

The Boathouse

The Cosy Club

STAYING IN SALISBURY

If you are looking to stay in Salisbury, you can find details and suggestions of places to stay on the Visit Wiltshire website. We also have some discounted rooms remaining for festival guests at Sarum College. Please call 01722 424800 and quote SLF for a special rate.

GENERAL INFORMATION

For general information about Salisbury, the best port of call is the Information Centre in Fish Row near the Market Square which is open seven days a week. Their telephone number is 01722 342860.

SALISBURY LITERARY FESTIVAL INFORMATION

For all the latest festival information, please visit our website or our social media pages on Twitter (@salslitfest), Facebook (@Salisburylitfest) and Instagram (@salslitfest).

We'd also love to see your photos and hear about your experiences: please share them with us using the hashtag #salslitfest17

We look forward to seeing you next week!
